Hanna and Foraker Forces in Ohio Lined Up For a Fight.

SEEKING CONTROL OF LEGISLATURE.

Result of the Conflict May Affect Hanna's Leadership and Re-election—Corporate Interests in the State Said to Be Concerned.

Columbus, O., Dec. 30.—The Ohio legislature, which elects the successor of Senator Foraker, convenes here next Monday. The party caucuses to nominate candidates for presiding officers and other positions in both branches of the general assembly will be held Saturday night. As the Republicans have a majority in both houses and as there is no opposition to the re-election of Senator Foraker, the senatorial question for this session is settled, but there is a very bitter contest in progress bearing on the re-election of Senator Hanna two years hence, as it is expected that a majority of the present Republican members will be re-elected to the next general assembly.

Senator Foraker is at his home in Cincinnati and Senator Hanna remains in Washington. Neither is expected here this week, but both are in constant communication with the leaders of their respective forces. John R. Malloy, secretary of the state Republican committee and oil inspector under Governor Nash, is manager of the Hanna forces and ex-State Chairman Charles L. Kurtz, who was private secretary to Governor Foraker and who headed the fusion movement in the legislature against Hanna four years ago, is manager of the Foraker forces. It is claimed by the Hanna men that this contest is "the same old factional fight of 1897-98 over again." The Foraker men claim they are simply exercising their right to support their friends. Both factions have their respective tickets for the caucus nominations and they are called the Hanna and the Foraker tickets as openly as the designation of Democratic and Republican tickets in campaigns. Four years ago the contest did not end with the party caucuses, but it was carried into the legislature. It is conceded by both sides that the results of the caucuses Saturday night will be final this time and those results may materially affect the future of one or the other of the Ohio senators whose followers have become very bitter toward each other and declare now that there can be no compromise.

The contest for control of the legislature is said to have extended beyond factional and even beyond political lines and to have involved most of the corporations and commercial enterprises that are supposed to be interested in what legislation may be made and also in what legislation is to be prevented if possible.

The contest between the two forces has extended to factional circles elsewhere in the state. Both sides claim "a clinch" and it is evident that these claims will continue until the contest is settled by the caucuses.

TO LEARN OF UNCLE SAM.

British Students Coming to Study American Methods.

London, Dec. 30.—The plan suggested by Alfred Mosely, the Englishman who made a big fortune in the South African diamond fields, to send Englishmen to America to study commercial methods, was endorsed by a recent meeting presided over by Lord Reay, chairman of the London school board and including Sir Joshua Fitch, chief inspector and secretary respectively of the Technical Education board of the London city council. As a result the first expedition of pupils will leave here in August for a four months' stay in the United States. It will consist of a commission of two or three members of Parliament, the heads of some of the biggest business houses, a few labor leaders and representatives of leading universities.

Mr. Mosely says the American boy is brighter than the English boy and consequently becomes a brighter man. Hence he believes there must be something in the American educational system lacking in the English system and this is one of the things the commission is to try to discover. It will also study American methods of commerce and industry.

Seale, Ala., Dec. 30.—Sheriff Hodges arrested Uriah Porter, the alleged murderer of William Fincher. Porter defied the community and Governor Jelks ordered out a company of militia to aid in his capture. Porter is now in jail at Opelika.

Father Crowley Doing Penance.
Chicago, Dec. 30.—It is reported that Father Jeremiah J. Crowley, the excommunicated priest of the Catholic church at Oregon, Ill., has left Chicago to do penance in a western monastery in order that he may be restored to his standing in the church.

GOVERNORS IN CONFERENCE.

Combined Effort in Opposition to the Proposed Railway Merger.

Helena, Mont., Dec. 30.—Governor Toole made ample preparations for the conference of northwestern governors in this city to take action upon the proposed consolidation of the Great Northern, Northern Pacific and Burlington roads. The meeting Monday was merely a conference at which the governors endeavored to formulate a plan for united action. The conference held its first session in the private office of Governor Toole at the state house at 2 o'clock p. m. Governor Toole said he would not attempt to say how long the conference might last nor would he anticipate its action. The governors present are VanSant of Minnesota, who suggested the meeting, Herried of South Dakota, Hunt of Idaho and Toole of Montana. Attorney General Stratton of Washington, represents that state.

Governor White of North Dakota and the attorney general of that state were expected to be present, but it was stated Monday that neither would attend the meeting. Governor White claiming it is impossible for him to leave the state at present. The mileage of both the Northern Pacific and Great Northern in North Dakota is very heavy. What effect, if any, the absence of White will have on any possible action to be taken is problematical. Governor VanSant, it is believed, has a well defined plan of fighting the merger drawn on state constitutional lines and it is expected he will advocate the adoption of this plan in other northwestern states.

Suit Against Ohio Railroads.

Columbus, O., Dec. 30.—The independent coal dealers and miners of the state have gone into court to put up a fight against the several coal and railroad combinations. In the circuit court at Logan a quo warranto action was instituted against the Locking Valley Railway company, and at Bucyrus a similar suit was instituted against the Toledo and Ohio Central Railroad company. It is charged in the petition just filed that the act forbidding one railway company from purchasing or leasing any part of a competing road has been violated. It is also charged that the Hocking Valley has combined with the Ohio Central and Kanawha and Michigan roads, and, further, that relationship exists between these roads, J. P. Morgan & Company of New York, the Central Trust company of New York and divers Ohio coal companies.

CAN'T PAY OUT.

Reasons Given For Embarrassment of National Asphalt Company.

New York, Dec. 30.—Concerning the recent application at Newark, N. J., for the appointment of receivers for the National Asphalt company, it is reported that a thorough investigation is being made by the Audit company of New York, which is acting in harmony with the joint protective committees representing the principal interests involved. Until that investigation is concluded nothing definite can be stated as to the concern's real condition or the prospects of successful reorganization and resumption. The president of the National company, General Francis Vinton Greene, issued a statement in which he speaks guardedly of the company's future. The losses such as they are, it is said, will fall heaviest on Philadelphia stockholders. From the papers submitted in the application for a receivership it appears that the company stands pledged to pay annually $2,500,000 in interest and sinking fund charges, whereas it professes to be able to count upon receiving from the earnings, interest and other payments of its subsidiary operating companies not more than $1,000,000 yearly.

Passing of Frank Peavey.

Chicago, Dec. 30.—Frank H. Peavey, 51, one of the best known grain men in the country, died here of pneumonia. Mr. Peavey came to Chicago from his home in Minneapolis nearly two weeks ago on a business trip. He was in his usual perfect health, but Dec. 20 he contracted a cold and that night took to his bed in the Auditorium annex. The cold quickly developed pneumonia. Mr. Peavey's wife was with her husband all through his illness, having left a sick bed herself in Minneapolis to come to him. Mr. Peavey was credited with being the largest owner of grain elevators in the country, if not in the world. The sign "P. V." was a familiar symbol on the warehouses in the grain producing states of the west and northwest along the lines of the railroads. His name for years was prominent on the boards of trade here and in the northwest. The body was taken to Minneapolis for burial. Mr. Peavey carried $1,376,000 life insurance.

Queen Restored to Health.

London, Dec. 30.—King Edward and Queen Alexandra went to Sandringham Monday afternoon. Owing to the recent illness of her majesty, unusually large crowds lined the route to the railroad station. The queen looked alert and showed little trace of illness.

SAVED BY COLD SNAP

Threatened Flood at Pittsburg Has Reached Its Climax.

HEAVY RAINS IN KEYSTONE STATE.

All Rivers Filled to Overflowing. Many Factories Were Compelled to Temporarily Suspend Operations. Floods in Other States.

Pittsburg, Dec. 30.—The threatened flood as a result of the heavy rainfall Saturday and Sunday, was averted here by the cold snap, and the rivers at this point will not reach over a 20-foot stage.

Dispatches from headwaters report waters falling at all points. A big ice jam formed in the Allegheny river between the Fort Wayne railroad bridge and Sixteenth street bridge which threatened to sweep the new railroad bridge away. The gorge caused the rivers to overflow and Plae street and River avenue, Allegheny, were flooded. The Allegheny department of public safety at once sent out men to warn people living in the lower part of the city to vacate their homes, but a half hour later the jam suddenly broke with an awful crash. The ice was forced between the Fort Wayne bridge piers by the immense volume of water and some of the falsework under the new bridge was torn away, but otherwise the structure was not damaged. About 25 loaded coal barges lying at the bridge on the Allegheny side were torn from their moorings and forced upon River avenue. They were badly damaged as was considerable freight in cars along the Pittsburg and Western railroad tracks. The loss to property will amount to several thousand dollars. The rivers were rapidly cleared of ice and no more damage is expected.

Southern States Drenched.

Atlanta, Dec. 30.—The torrential rains of the past two days in Georgia, Alabama, east Tennessee and portions of North Carolina caused the death of four persons as far as known and inflicted serious damage to all kinds of property. The rains were followed by clearing and much colder weather, accompanied by high winds. The weather bureau announced that the Chatahoochee river would continue to rise during Tuesday and it is feared much damage will result. Three people were drowned at West Point, Ga., while attempting to cross the Chatahoochee and Thomas Russell, an engineer on the Atlanta and West Point railroad was killed in a freight wreck caused by a washout near Notasulga, Ala. Thousands of dollars worth of property has been destroyed at West Point and there is much suffering. Water in the streets of West Point was from one to five feet deep. No trains have been sent through from Atlanta to Montgomery over the Atlanta and West Point road since Saturday. Two washouts are reported on the main line of the Louisville and Nashville road south of Montgomery.

At Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, Dec. 30.—The rain which fell almost incessantly since Saturday evening resulted in a dangerous freshet in the Schuylkill river. All of the big industrial plants along the Schuylkill at Manayunk and Norristown, near here are flooded and work was suspended. The tracks of the Philadelphia and Reading railroad at Spring Mill, about eight miles from here are submerged. Traffic, however, has not yet been seriously handicapped. In this city the river is out of its banks near the Baltimore and Ohio railroad station. Cellars of dwellings are flooded and many residents along the river sought safer quarters. Two new unoccupied brick dwellings collapsed in Kensington, in the northeastern section of the city, having been undermined by the heavy rain. Many farms at Tacony, Wissinoming, Collegeville, Holmesburg and Torresdale, suburbs of this city, have been seriously damaged and cellars of residences are flooded.

Schuylkill Settling Down.

Norristown, Pa., Dec. 30.—The Schuylkill river is receding and the danger is believed to be over. Much damage was done to the mills and factories along the river between here and Joneshook. At the Woodstock woolen mills the first floors were under water and 300 employees were thrown out of employment in consequence. The new bridge being constructed over the river at Port Kennedy was washed away. Along the Berklomen creek, much damage resulted as the water rose 14 feet.

Peru, Ind., Dec. 30.—There is evidence of foul play in the case of Oliver Kissiman, whose body was found near the railway tracks here. The only injury was a fractured skull, the skin being unbroken. His coat and vest were on the rail and watch and money were missing.

SOME WILD TALK.

Hints at Probability of War Between Germany and United States.

London, Dec. 30.—Commenting on a dispatch to the London Times from Washington to the effect that persons of considerable importance in Washington official circles professes to believe that war between the United States and Germany is inevitable, the St. James Gazette says it does not believe such a disaster will be allowed to occur over a dispute in regard to the debts of Venezuela to Germany, but that if it does, there can be no doubt that English sympathies will be with America. At the same time the St. James Gazette expresses the hope that the United States will not allow such states as Venezuela to gain the impression that they can reckon on the protection of Monroism if they choose to repudiate their obligations in Europe.

A dispatch from Berlin says: "It is believed to be certain here that an ultimatum will be issued within three days and that an attack on Venezuela will follow directly after. In addition to the Vineta, the Galke, two training ships and the cruiser Geier have been ordered to La Guaira. In the meanwhile it is officially stated that the German charge d'affaires has not left Caracas and that diplomatic relations have not yet been broken off." It is also declared that "an agreement has been reached between Germany and the United States in regard to the German course of action in Venezuela."

MENACED THE MIKADO.

Report of an Attempt to Assassinate Emperor of Japan.

Vancouver, B. C., Dec. 30.—Japanese papers received by the steamer Athenian, tell of what appeared to be an attempt at assassination on Emperor Mutsuhito by a foreigner named Thorson. This man with an ex-member of the Japanese parliament, Tanaka Ejoseo, waited for the imperial carriage after the ceremony of opening the diet had taken place. The Japanese member wished to present a document to his majesty and threw off his coat and hat to approach the carriage. As he rushed forward, Thorson also ran up with a pistol in his hand, but before he could do anything was overpowered and disarmed by the soldiers of the guard. It is alleged that Thorson had an interest in the document which Tanaka was attempting to present to the emperor and that he brandished the weapon merely to impress the latter with his importance. Thorson is still in jail, while Tanaka was provisionally pardoned.

Religious Riots.

London, Dec. 30.—The island of Lewis has been the scene of serious religious riots arising out of the union of the Free and the United Church of Scotland. The islanders refused to countenance the alliance and when the minister at Ness joined the United church they locked him out of his church. A strong force of police was sent over from the mainland to open the doors, whereupon the islanders congregated and throwing volleys of stones at the constables drove them inside the building and bombarded them with rocks until they capitulated and agreed to leave the island. Every member of the police department was more or less seriously wounded. It is probable a detachment of troops will be sent to subdue the rioters.

Chinese Dined By Conger.

Peking, Dec. 30.—Considerable sensation has been caused in Chinese official circles by a dinner given at his residence by United States Minister Conger, and which was attended by the leading officials of the Chinese foreign office. Among the officials present were Ma Tung, a former Boxer leader, and Wang Wen Shao, one of the Chinese plenipotentiaries. The dinner was attended by several American ladies. It was formerly the custom for prominent Chinese officials never to enter a foreign legation except upon the most formal occasions, while the meeting of foreign ladies socially would have been considered as degrading as would the associating with Chinese women upon the same footing. This event is significant of the progressive tendency of today.

Jap Accused of Looting.

Yokohama, Dec. 30.—General Baron Yamaguchi, who commanded the Japanese troops in China, has resigned the command of the Fifth division of the Japanese army. The general's action was due to the fact that public charges of looting have been brought against him.

Steel Trust's Big Rival.

Youngstown, O., Dec. 30.—It is announced that the new $4,000,000 plant of the Youngstown Sheet Iron and Tube company will begin operations Monday. The new concern, it is said, will be one of the biggest rivals of the United States Steel corporation.

Milliner's Store Robbed.

Goshen, Ind., Dec. 30.—The millinery store of Helen Flaque, was robbed, the thieves carrying away practically her entire stock.

RAILROAD DISASTERS.

Rock Rolled Upon B. & O. Track Just as Freight Train Came Up.

IT WAS LOOSENEED BY RECENT RAINS.

Engine and Several Cars Went Into the Ditch With Trainmen Under Them—Other Wrecks Attended With Loss of Life.

Parkersburg, W. Va., Dec. 30.—Two men are missing, one is badly injured, one engine and four cars are at the foot of an embankment, two other cars are wrecked and 100 feet of track are torn up as the result of a westbound freight train running upon a large rock on the Baltimore and Ohio at No. 3 tunnel near Long Run.

The rock, which was loosened by the heavy rains of the past two days, rolled down from the hill just as the train came out of the tunnel.

The two missing men are Fireman A. R. Hite and Brakeman E. B. Putnam, both of Grafton. They are probably dead beneath the wreck. Engineer Hope Goudy of Grafton was so seriously injured he will probably not recover.

Freight Train Was Too Long.

Chicago, Dec. 30.—Four fatalities resulted from the collision of the "Omaha Flyer" and an eastbound freight train on the Chicago and Northwest, ern at Malta, Ills. George W. Rudic and wife of Omaha, D. O. Nichols of Council Bluffs, Ia., and the sleeping car porter, E. D. Dunne of Chicago were the victims. There were 35 others injured, some perhaps fatally. The freight train had taken a siding but was too long for the switch and the engine ran out upon the main track before the rear of the freight train cleared. The passenger train was not stopped and the two engines "cornered" at the head of the switch. Two coaches, one sleeping car and eight freight cars were burned. Property loss $30,000.

Cars Struck a Street Car.

Birmingham, Ala., Dec. 30.—An East Lake street car collided with a number of freight cars attached to a switch engine, and one man was killed and two others injured. The dead: E. W. Jones, conductor on streetcar. Injured: Ed Green, negro brakeman, both legs broken and head crushed; H. M. Teate, Woodlawn, bruised on legs. The car, it is said, was going at a rapid rate of speed. The engine was pushing the freight cars ahead of it, and the first two cars were thrown from the track and Conductor Jones killed beneath one of them.

Diamond Special Derailed.

Springfield, Ills., Dec. 30.—The southbound "Diamond Special" on the Illinois Central road was wrecked at Starness Crossing, three miles east of here. Engineer McCormick of Clinton was injured on head and back, maybe serious. Fireman John Walnwright of Clinton was slightly injured. The accident was caused by the derail of interlocker being turned against the Central train.

Wrecked By a Landslide.

Lynchburg, Va., Dec. 30.—Near Reusen, five miles from here, a landslide caused the wreck of a passenger train on the James River branch of the Chesapeake and Ohio. Engineer George Fisher, Express Agent Shannon, Baggageman Thompson and Conductor E. A. Whitaker were killed. Several others were injured. The landslide was caused by heavy rains.

Four Trainmen Injured.

Tiffin, O., Dec. 30.—Four men may die as the result of a collision between freight trains on the Pennsylvania railroad near here. The injured are Engineer Keister, C. J. Chadwick, operator at Wnrsaw Junction; Fireman Bell and Brakeman Cosgrove. Property loss will be about $10,000.

Caused By Washouts.

Opelika, Ala., Dec. 30.—Heavy rains caused two freight wrecks on the Alabama Eastern railway, within 50 miles of each other, the flood causing embankments to give way. Engineer Thomas Russell was killed in one wreck and three trainmen were injured. The property loss is heavy.

Tree on the Track.

Columbus, Miss., Dec. 30.—Train No. 36 on the South railway was wrecked at Ittabena, Miss., by a big tree blown across the track by the storm. The engine turned over and the train was derailed. Engineer McWilliams was buried under the engine.

Conductor Killed.

Memphis, Dec. 30.—D. M. Ray, a locomotive engineer, was shot and killed on a Yazoo and Mississippi Valley train near Leland, Miss., by four men who subsequently forced the engineer in charge of the cab to cut loose the engine and take them to Cleveland. Ashley Cocke, A. M. Phipps and two men named Blackman and Lauderdale were arrested charged with the killing.

ADMIRAL CERVERA would hardly coincide with the verdict of that court as to the charge that Schley was dilatory in his movements or attacks.

STATISTICS show these interesting facts: The United States has two-fifths of the railway mileage of the world, and a larger mileage than any other single country. Comparing the mileage of other countries with that of the United States, the United States stands first, with 199,378 miles; German Empire, 31,934; Russia, 29,894; France, 26,613; India, 25,035; Austria-Hungary, 22,919; Great Britain and Ireland, 21,700; Canada, 17,657; British Australasia, 15,266; Argentina, 10,419; Italy, 9,810; Mexico, 9,603; Brazil, 8,718, and Spain, 8,300 miles. Of these half a million miles of railway in the world it is estimated that about one-third are owned by the governments of the countries in which they are located.

TO THE CITIZENS OF MAYSVILLE.
The Board of Trade has decided on Saturday, February 22nd, as the time for holding the third annual tobacco fair. It should be the desire of every citizen that this be the most successful fair that has ever been held. To this end let every person go to work to give it all the publicity possible, and see that all the farmers of Kentucky and Ohio within reach of us are made acquainted with the fact that they are expected to be present and make an exhibit of their tobacco on that occasion. Twelve hands of tobacco and thirty ears of corn will be required for a sample to compete for the prizes which will be offered. Liberal premiums will be given on all grades of tobacco and for both white and yellow corn.

Governor Beckham has been invited to be present and deliver an address on the "Resources of Kentucky," and ex-Governor Bradley has been invited to be present and deliver an address on the "Early Development of the State." The board hopes to have an interesting program and a pleasant occasion in every way. A committee will call upon our citizens some time within the next few days for the purpose of finding out the amount they will be willing to contribute in order to make this mid-winter exhibition a great success. The importance of the tobacco interests in this section of Kentucky, and the adjacent territory across the river, is such as to make it very necessary that we should exert ourselves in order to have a creditable exhibition of the products named.

"Two Married Men."
Geo. E. Leeson's successful comedy which will be seen at the opera house Monday, January 6th, comes highly recommended by the press in the cities where it has appeared. The State Journal of Lincoln, Neb., says: "Two Married Men" gave the benefit of their experience in the matrimonial line to a large audience. The same company was seen here last season, when they left an impression that has not been effaced up to date. There is just enough exaggeration in the skit to make it entertaining from beginning to end and not so much of noise and horse-play as to make it a bore. S. S. Simpson and W. A. Parker were the two married men who had trouble that caused laughs through three acts. Specialties were introduced by Charles Schilling, Colton & Darrow, the Dewey sisters in swell dances with a modicum of song, and by Frank Colton, representing the colored contingent.

A False Report.
A report has been industriously circulated by some one that Mr. W. T. Cummins, the grocer, corner Third and Limestone, intends to quit business. Mr. Cummins authorizes the BULLETIN to say there is no truth whatever in any such reports. He will continue to be found at his present stand, with the best in his line always in stock.

A bill will be introduced in the Kentucky Legislature to give the city of Louisville the right to sell its $925,000 of gas stock. If the proposition carries the money which the city receives will be used in building sewers, for the construction of an armory, and for the establishment of a free circulating library.

AFTERWARD

The Christmas scramble left quite a lot of choice things in its wake. Perhaps the very article you had "your eye on" is here yet. Prices now are just half what they were. This is the time to treat yourself to some coveted dainty Santa Claus forgot. Or perhaps he gave you money to do your own choosing—wise Santa. Come in. Look leisurely; no hurry now. Dollars will double themselves—you can have two articles for the price of one.

D. HUNT & SON

"THE LITTLE MARQUISE."

An Enchanting New Book From the Pen of Mrs. Laura G. Collins.

It will indeed be an announcement of great interest and pleasure to the friends, and all who are acquainted with Mrs. Laura G. Collins as a gifted writer, to learn that she has through her publishers, the Robert Clark Co., Cincinnati, brought out for the holiday season a most charming little volume of both prose and poetry. A new book from the pen of Mrs. Collins is truly a literary event.

"The Little Marquise and Miscellanies in Verse and Prose," is the captivating title of this careful and painstaking collection of verse and story. In the selections, so judiciously made, Mrs. Collins has used her well known beautiful taste and exquisite judgment, and it goes without saying that with articles so intelligently and attractively written, this "gem of a book" cannot fail of the warm reception accorded her previous works.

If an added interest were needed in introducing this beautiful little book—apart from its own merits and the well deserved success of the author—the supply would not be wanting for such need. In a word this most attractive contribution to our holiday literature is a joint authorship. Madame Rostan—the associate authoress—is a resident of that more than beautiful city on the Seine in sunny France, and between these kindred spirits a strong attachment sprang up during Mrs. Collins' long sojourn in Paris. A biography of great interest, with some pathetic features, introduces Mme. Rostan—a woman of high culture and thorough training, with a vivid imagination and, without doubt, a sense of the interesting, exhibiting the true "song spirit" and a charming gift of narration in her poems.

"Pierre and Marguerite," a legend of the times of Peter the Great, beautifully told and moves the heart to sadness in its denouement—a true story. In verse "sweet as sweetest music"—she voices the legend of "Elizabeth of Hungary," comparable in every way—which is saying much—with the beautiful imagery of Edwin Markham as he writes of this "sweet Samaritan" spirit. Exquisite delineations are these legends.

In making the statement that this joint production will be found to meet the tastes and wishes of the lovers of what is good and choice in poetic or prose literature, we do not err. The many readers of "Immortelles and Asphodels" who remember, as they must, Mrs. Collins' travel sketches in Europe—so full of local color and artistic discernment, will be prepared for the further treat awaiting them in turning the pages of this new volume. In the opening poem—"The Little Marquise on the Wall"—one feels enraptured with the beautiful story—so beautifully told in sweet rhythmic jingle—transported we are in vivid description to the gay and mirthful scenes of "Old Plantation Days" in the Southland under the regime which seems slidden now almost into ancient history, when the "Catholic French" held sway and revelry was a sound of every night and day. The great interest and charm of this sprightly and realistic recital is skillfully woven into the refrain:

"Yes, I remember best of all
The Little Marquise on the wall."

"Christmas at the Old Woman's" is amusingly given. Very sweet is the poem on Rome. A tender poem that touches the heart and calls sadly to mind scenes that have vanished, is "In the Gloaming." In "Mother Earth," our gifted writer of song reaches sublimity. Worthy of special mention are some other poems—"The Thistle Gatherer," "On Reading a Christmas Letter," and

"A Sacred Anniversary." A warmth and tenderness of feeling pervades each poem, vesting with a color and tone that greatly enhances the charm. Other sweet and beautiful poems are of this choice repertoire of beauties. The "Legend of Lent"—in prose—is a translation from the French—notably excellent. "Jottings from a Few Days Interconcourse with Mrs. Peabody"—sister of Mrs. Hawthorne—is very pleasant reading, but the "Memorial Tribute" to Mr. McKinley, our beloved slain President, is an exquisite piece of composition.

Altogether we have not seen a more pleasing and tasteful compilation of sweet short stories, and verse of real charm, than can be found in this attractive little volume of which we have given a sketchy notice, and we bespeak for it an appreciative patronage.

In graceful manner it is dedicated to Miss Marie Patterson, now a resident of Paris, France, but an honored and superior member of one of the best "Old Catholic French" families of St. Louis. Each book is bound in a sweet tint of green with gold ornamentation—in dress worthy of its contents, printed in clear type with wide margins, and well fitted for a library, or friendly gift.

A grain of sand in the eye can cause excruciating agony. A grain of pepper in place of the grain of sand intensifies the torment. The pain is not confined to the organs affected. The whole body feels the shock of that little irritating particle.
It is so when there is any derangement or disorder of the delicate womanly organs. The disorder may seem trivial but the whole body feels it. The nervous system is disordered. There are fretfulness, irritability, sullenness and depression of spirits. The general health of woman depends on the local health of the organs peculiarly feminine. Remove the drains, ulcerations, bearing down pains, and other ailments of woman, and the whole body feels the benefit.
Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a specific for the diseases that undermine the strength of women. It is free from opium, cocaine and other narcotics, poisons which enter into many other preparations for woman's use. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.
